About The Susquehanna Chorale

❖ Ensemble-in-residence at Messiah College, the Susquehanna Chorale has been a vital member of the arts community in central Pennsylvania for nearly 40 years.

❖ The Chorale frequently performs major works with the Harrisburg Symphony Orchestra, and has performed at Mt. Gretna and the Chautauqua Institution in New York State, and at several venues in Europe.

❖ Attendance at regular season concerts has reached record levels over the past two years, with nearly 3,000 in attendance during the 2018-19 season.

❖ The Educational Outreach Program of the Susquehanna Chorale serves more than 160 students, who sing in the Children's, Youth, and Young Women's Chorales, and the Susquehanna Preparatory Choir. Each year, the Chorale provides one or more internships for students in the choral conducting major.
